

We are incredibly proud of Dwayne (Yanhao) Li and his outstanding achievement of winning gold at the Junior Grand Prix in Bangkok, Thailand. Making New Zealand skating history again. He truly is an outstanding role model for all our skaters and he so deserves his gold medal and place in the history books that he has worked so hard to achieve.

World Junior silver medalist Rio Nakata (left) took second place with China's Tonghe Tian (right) capturing bronze. @ISU

Yanhao Li won New Zealand's first ever ISU gold medal and hopes to inspire more upcoming skaters in the country. @ISU

We also recommend you take the time to watch the interview with Dwayne on the ISU Figure Skating Facebook page <https://fb.watch/uEuqAY4Oi4/>

And if you haven't watched both his skates at this event, the following are the links to the ISU Youtube site for Dwayne's:

Short program <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MJRjfdS6nGE>

Freeskate <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LOLMuDzZvoY>